1. Preamble

This Policy is a revision and restatement of the Company's policy against sexual harassment to bring it in line with the recent changes in Indian law. The Company ("Integrated Decision and Systems (India) Pvt. Ltd.") reaffirms its objective of maintaining a work environment that is free from sexual harassment.

2. Prohibition Of Sexual Harassment

(A) The Company strictly prohibits Sexual Harassment in its Work Environment.

(B) "Sexual Harassment" means:

(i) Any conduct that is unwelcome and sexual in nature;

Examples of such conduct are:

- (a) Physical contact and advances;
- (b) A demand or request for sexual favors;
- (c) Making sexually colored remarks;
- (d) Showing pornography.

(ii) Any conduct/circumstance that is harassing in nature but only if it supports one's own or another person's unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature.

Examples of such conduct/circumstances are:

- (a) Retaliation in any manner, for complaining against Sexual Harassment or giving evidence in support of such a complaint;
- (b) Implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment in the harassed person's employment;
- (c) Implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment in the harassed person's employment;
- (d) Implied or explicit threat about the harassed person's present or future employment status;
- (e) circumstances interfering with the harassed person's work or creating an intimidating or offensive or hostile work environment;
- (f) Humiliating treatment likely to affect the harassed person's health or safety.
- (g) Harassing an employee in virtual environment by using inappropriate emojis, undefined working hours, underdressing during video calls.

(C) "Work Environment" means:

- (i) Interactions/virtual interaction amongst the Company's employees*, irrespective of location and timing;
- (ii) Interactions/virtual interaction between the Company's employee and a third party during the course of employment or third party's business relationship with the Company;

- (iii) Interactions/virtual interaction between an employee of the Company/third party having a business relationship with the Company and a visitor to the Company's premises/events.

 The term "employee" includes permanent as well as temporary employees, individual consultants and trainees (paid as well as unpaid).*

3. Prevention Of Sexual Harassment

- (A) The Company believes that Sexual Harassment can be eliminated through awareness.
- (B) The Company will spread awareness within its organization through periodic communication about Sexual Harassment and its consequences for the organization and the individuals involved.
- (C) The Company will also take other appropriate steps as may be required to prevent and eliminate Sexual Harassment from its Work Environment.

4. Redressal Of Complaints

- (A) The Company has constituted an Anti-Harassment Committee ("AHC") to investigate and decide complaints of Sexual Harassment covered by this Policy.
- (B) The names and contact details of the AHC members are listed in Appendix A to this Policy.
- (C) Anyone who faces or is affected by Sexual Harassment in the Company's Work Environment may make a complaint to the AHC.
- (D) The procedures and time frames for filing, investigating and deciding complaints; and rights and obligations of the parties involved in the complaint are detailed in Appendix B to this Policy.

5. Punishment For Sexual Harassement

- (A) The Company shall take suitable action as recommended by the AHC against any employee who is found guilty of Sexual Harassment after due investigation by the AHC. Such action may include one or more of the following:
 - a warning,
 - a written apology,
 - mandatory counseling sessions or community service,
 - fines,
 - withholding of promotions or increments,
 - suspension from service,
 - termination of service.

- (B) Any person who is found guilty of Sexual Harassment of a woman after due investigation by the AHC shall be liable to pay compensation for any losses suffered by the harassed woman due to such Sexual Harassment.
- (C) The following acts of Sexual Harassment by a man against a woman are also criminal offences under the Indian Penal Code and are punishable as described below:
 - (a) Physical contact and advances involving unwelcome and explicit sexual overtures;
 - (b) A demand or request for sexual favors;
 - (c) Showing pornography against the will of a woman;
 - (d) Making sexually colored remarks.The offences under (a), (b) and (c) are punishable with fine and/or rigorous imprisonment of up to 3 years. The offence under (d) is punishable with fine and/or simple or rigorous imprisonment of up to 1 year.

6. Consequences of Making False or Malicious Complaints

If the AHC concludes that a complaint is intentionally false or malicious or that any person has intentionally provided false or misleading evidence of any kind, the person who knowingly made such a false or malicious complaint or knowingly provided such false or misleading evidence may be punished in the same manner as described in Para 5 (A) and (B) above. A complaint will not be automatically treated as false or malicious just because of failure to prove that Sexual Harassment occurred.

7. Confidentiality

Privacy and dignity of individuals must be respected and matters of Sexual Harassment must be treated with great sensitivity. Therefore, all information pertaining to any complaints of Sexual Harassment should be treated as private and confidential and should not be disclosed to anyone other than the AHC or the parties involved in the complaint and, to a limited extent, only to those persons strictly on a “need to know” basis and who are expected to implement the decisions of the AHC. Anyone breaching this obligation of confidentiality shall be liable to pay the Company a fine of Rupees Five Thousand (Rs. 5000).

8. Amendments

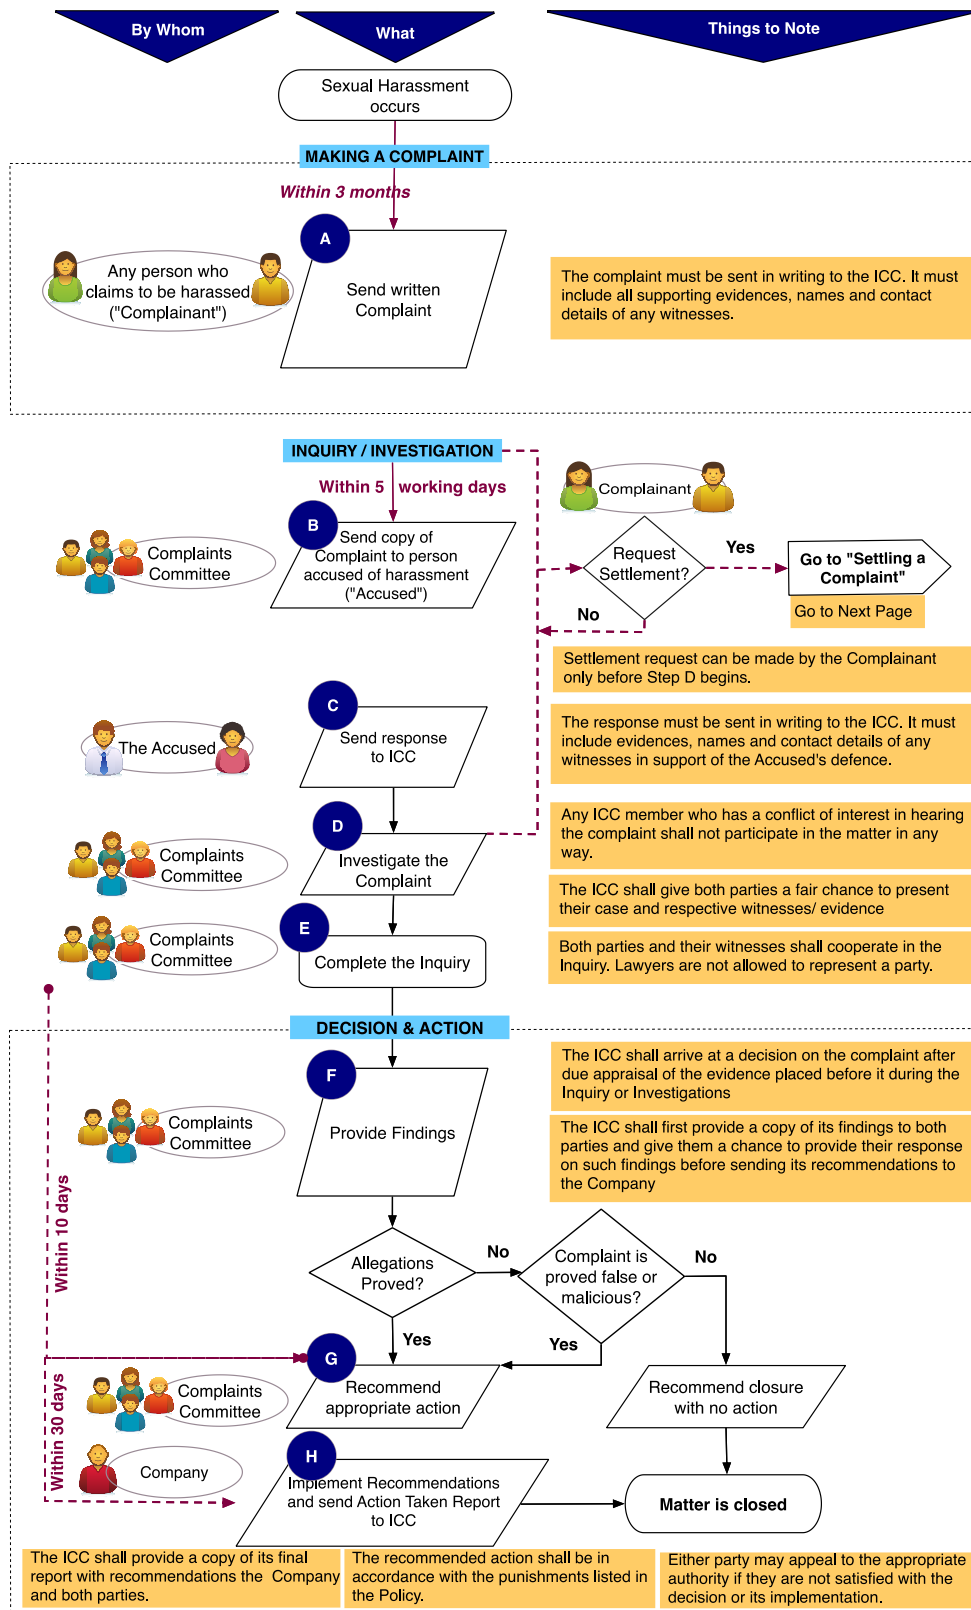

The Company may amend this Policy and the related Appendices from time to time to reflect any changes in the applicable laws or even otherwise to ensure that its work environment is free from sexual harassment.

Appendix B - COMPLAINT PROCESS

Other Important Rules applicable to the Complaints Process

- (1) The Accused should refrain from interacting with the Complainant and any of the Complainant's witnesses or retaliating against them in any manner.
- (2) Both parties and their respective witnesses shall appear before the ICC whenever required for the purposes of the Inquiry. They shall also produce all necessary information and/or documents demanded by the ICC in relation to investigation of the Complaint.
- (3) During the pendency of the Inquiry, the Complainant may request the ICC to:
 - (a) transfer the Complainant or the Accused to another office of the Company;
 - (b) grant him/her leave from work;
 - (c) prohibit the Accused from appraising the work performance of the Complainant and his/her witnesses.

The ICC will consider such requests but is not bound to accept the same if it believes the situation does not warrant it. If the ICC accepts the request, it will recommend implementation of the same to the Company. However, it cannot recommend grant of leave exceeding 3 months. The Company will report back to the ICC on the implementation of the recommendations.

- (4) Information regarding the Complaint or the investigations or the names or addresses of the parties involved or action taken; shall not be disclosed to any one except those involved in the investigations and implementation of the ICC's recommendations.
